Commander's Comments

Fellow Comrades,

It's a new month at the Post with Elections out of the way and new ideas on the way. Please, let's work together for the betterment of our Veterans.

We have so many great people here, so we can achieve so much together. Our Post and Auxiliary need to work in conjunction with each other to make this the best Post around.

For you who may not know, I Mackie Crossan, Senior Vice Commander have been elevated to Commander. I will fill this position until the new officers and new Commander take their offices in June.

Please help the Post make this transition so all can build unity.

We just had homecoming for our Auxiliary State President Suzie Carter, lots of Comrades and Auxiliary from around the State, great fun had by all, great work from our staff, and all the hours they put in to make this happen. Thank you.

Let's bring on the month of May and all programs and events together.

FINAL NOTE—If you volunteer for Bingo—You must remain in the Bingo room during your shift. You can get food and drinks (non-alcohol) from the snack bar. Please stay out of the canteen and offices during your work shift. If you can't abide by this, don't volunteer.

"We are all connected, all part of a greater story."

Thank you,

Mackie Crossan
